The ASE Receives Students Delegation

April 11, 2019

Amman Stock Exchange (ASE) received students delegation from Al-Balqa' Applied University/ Faculty of Business- Finance and Banking Sciences Department within a field visit to it and the Jordan Capital Market Institutions (Jordan Securities Commission and Securities Depository Center) the visit was for linking the theoretical side with the practical one, where the Media and Communication Department briefed the students on the working the trading mechanism and the most important features of the applicable electronic trading system at the ASE in addition to the recent developments that the Jordanian Capital Market witnessed and the future projects for the upcoming years.