Amman Stock Exchange Received Students Delegations

May 24, 2026

The Amman Stock Exchange (ASE) received student delegations from both the Jordanian Judicial Institute and Zarqa University at as part of field visits to Jordanian capital market institutions.

This visit aims to introduce the students about the trading mechanism at the Amman Stock Exchange, and to learn about the nature of the work of capital market institutions and the services they provide, in addition to the legislation governing their work.

