Article (43)

The Stock Exchange shall keep the following:

A. Its own accounting books and records, in accordance with adopted accounting standards.
B. The books and records required for the conduct of its business, in accordance with its regulations and directives.